

Editorial features 2018

The targeted technical publication for progressive dairy professionals seeking the latest information from around the world

SHOWS	ISSUE	MAIN EDITORIAL THEME	OPTIONS FOR
	17.1 JAN/FEB	Heat stress management Getting the best returns from the herd through effective environmental and health management.	Optionsfor Hoof care
	17.2 MAR	Nutrition, feed & forage Managing cow nutrition to improve milk yield and cow health and comfort. Milking Parlours Supplement	Optionsfor Housing & cow comfort
	17.3 MAY	Parlour management & hygiene Maximising hygiene standards, countering mastitis and minimising somatic cell counts.	Optionsfor Mastitis & teat care
	17.4 JULY	Health & performance Keeping cows healthy to optimise cow longevity, reproductive performance and milk yield. Breed & Genetics Review	Optionsfor Forage & feeding
	17.5 SEPT	Calf & heifer management Looking after the young stock to maximise their impact on the milking herd.	Optionsfor Parlour equipment
	17.6 NOV	Controlling mastitis Maximising milk sales through the effective management of this important disease.	Optionsfor Optimising the rumen

milking parlours SUPPLEMENT

International
Dairy
Topics

17.2
March 2018

The Milking Parlours Supplement gives providers of milking equipment the opportunity to highlight how their products can benefit dairy farmers in terms of the productivity of their cows and the quality of the milk they produce.

Further information can be obtained from your marketing contact at Positive Action Publications Ltd (see page 2).

