

Editorial features 2018

The targeted technical publication for progressive breeders and pig producers that is read and respected around the world

SHOWS	ISSUE	MAIN EDITORIAL THEME	OPTIONS FOR
	33.1 JAN/FEB	Profitable piglet production Successful production and weaning of fit and healthy piglets.
	33.2 MAR	Nutrition for the prolific sow Maximising your return per sow through good feed, feeding and nutrition.
	33.3 APR	International Health Review Latest developments to optimise the production of quality, healthy pigs.
	33.4 MAY	Producing safe pork Quality pork production via nutrition, genetics and management.
	33.5 JULY	Feeding for growth Maximising the return on your feed through the best live performance and cost reductions.
	33.6 SEPT	Raising healthy piglets Optimising piglet nutrition and health to give good early and subsequent performance. International Breeder Review Supplement
	33.7 OCT	Achieving genetic potential Using management, health and nutrition to realise genetic potential in pork production.
	33.8 DEC	Gut health As the microbiota of the gut increases in importance we look at managing it to optimise productivity.	